

"MEMORIES OF FATHER"

When I was Four years old I thought; My daddy can do anything...

At Five years old: My daddy knows a whole lot...

Six years old: My dad is smarter than your dad...

Eight years old: My dad doesn't know exactly everything...

Ten years old: In the olden days, when my dad grew up, things were sure different...

Twelve years old: Oh, well, naturally dad doesn't know anything about that. He's too old to remember his childhood...

Fourteen years old: Don't pay any attention to my dad. He to old-fashioned...

Eighteen years old: Him? Well you know what I say; Don't trust anybody over 30..!

Twenty-five years old: Dad knows about that, but then he should, he's been around so long...

Thirty years old: Maybe we should ask Dad what he thinks. After all, he's probably done this before...

Thirty-five years old: I'm not making that decision until I talk to Dad about this...

Forty years old: I wonder how Dad would handle this..?

Fifty years old: I'd give anything if Dad were still here so I could talk this over with him...

Fifty-five years old: I think Dad was right about alot of things. I wish I would've listened to him a little more carefully...

P.S.- I Love you Dad..!

Father—It Is Time to Step-Up

Deuteronomy 6

⁴ Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ⁵ You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶ And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. ⁷ You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.”

⁴ Hear, O Israel:
The Lord our God, the Lord is
one. ⁵ You shall love
the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶ And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.
⁷ You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them . . .

Make every use of the opportunities given to you

⁵ You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶ And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. – Deuteronomy 6

- The background of the slide features a silhouette of a man and a child walking away from the viewer in a field. The man is on the left, holding the child's hand. The child is on the right, also walking away. The scene is set against a vibrant sunset sky with a gradient from orange at the top to purple at the bottom. In the foreground, there are dark silhouettes of plants and flowers. A small bird is visible in flight in the upper right portion of the sky.
1. Whether you believe in Christianity or not?
 2. How are you influencing your child in living in this world?
 3. What values do you want to instill in your child?
 4. What steps are you taking to make a difference in your marriage, your children, your family and/or the world you live in?

"A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society." -- Billy Graham, Christian Evangelist

"My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it."-- Clarence Budington Kelland, U.S. Writer

"How true Daddy's words were when he said: 'All children must look after their own upbringing.' Parents can only give good advice or put them on the right paths, but the final forming of a person's character lies in their own hands."-- Anne Frank, German Jew and Holocaust Victim
