

Hebrews 10:5-10 (ESV)

- ⁵ Consequently, when Christ^[a] came into the world, he said, “Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired,
but a body have you prepared for me;
⁶ in burnt offerings and sin offerings
you have taken no pleasure.
⁷ Then I said, ‘Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book.’”

⁸ When he said above, “You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings” (these are offered according to the law), ⁹ then he added, “Behold, I have come to do your will.” He does away with the first in order to establish the second. ¹⁰ And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

A night scene with a bright starburst light shining down on a tent. The background is a dark blue night sky filled with stars. A bright, multi-pointed starburst light is the central focus, with a vertical beam of light extending downwards from its center. In the foreground, the silhouettes of a tent and other structures are visible against the dark ground.

6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder, and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty
God, Everlasting
Father, Prince of Peace. – Isaiah 9

10 And by that will we have been sanctified (set apart; holy) through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.-- Hebrews 10

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 12 And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.” -- Luke 2:11-12

Its About the Cross

The Cross Symbol of Hope!

IT'S ABOUT THE CROSS

The Cross Is a Symbol of Hope!

Everyone has a cross to bear,
but if you will let Jesus bear it with you,
He will give you the strength needed to face the burdens of each day!
The Cross of Jesus IS NOT an ornament!

The Cross symbolizes
His broken body and shed blood, reminding us of His sacrifice and the example He set for us to follow.
The Cross is the symbol of His mercy,
His grace and the hope we have in Him
to overcome any hardship.

JESUS SAID, “I came for YOU!”
