CCU General Info.

- The player will be assigned based on their grade.
- Some of the main goals of CCU Sports are to provide safe, encouraging, and quality sports programs and opportunities for Christian fellowship. Winning games is not the #1 priority.
- Keep in mind that coaches, administrators, referees, and CCU participants are volunteers.
- Your child will participate in each game, but there is no guarantee of minimum playing time. Decision will be made by the coaching staff to determine how the team on the court is put together based on the strength of the players, needs of the team, and the league rules.
- For the entire document on rules, expectations, and additional details, refer to the 22-page application packet at <http://ccusports.com/?sport=basketball&page=forms>

Responsibilities of Players and Parents

- Players are expected to participate in league events and fellowships. For example, only players who attended a specific minimum number of fellowship meetings are allowed to play in playoff games.
- Attend all practice sessions and games. If you can not make it to a practice or a game, you have the responsibility to inform your coach.
- Be on time for all events (practice sessions, games and meetings).
- Be suited with the right practice clothes and uniform on game days. Players will not be allowed to participate without proper uniform. The t-shirt worn underneath the uniform must be white. After washing your child's uniform, do not dry in the dryer for it may get damaged. A uniform jersey will be provided to your child by HEFC and must be returned when the season is over.
- Basketball shoes (leather high tops) are highly encouraged to give proper support but not mandatory. However, athletic shoes must be worn.
- Bring a basketball to the practice and write your name on the ball.
- Show respect for players, coaches, and spectators by recognizing and showing appreciation for an outstanding play by either team and using positive cheers that support, uplift, and encourage the players. Respect the judgment of the game officials (again, who are volunteers).
- Be ready to learn

- Bring your own water bottle
- Whenever the coach blow his whistle, all players goes to him immediately (within 5 seconds)
- Fundraising is optional for CCU but there is a suggested donation of $100 to cover their program costs; we may use leftover fees or conduct separate fundraising activities to cover this cost and encourage your participation.
